

Daylight and the Sun

Antony and the Johnsons

Now I cry for daylight
Daylight and the sun
Now I cry for daylight
Daylight everyone
Daylight in my heart
Daylight in the trees
Daylight kisses everything
She can see

There was no light
Only the white night
First born when the sun
Screamed her eyes wide open
Daylight in the fields
Daylight mountains
Fire kisses the floor
Nor the lakes and makes shadows

Now I cry for daylight
Daylight and the sun
Now I cry for daylight
Daylight everyone
Daylight in my heart
Daylight in the trees
Daylight kisses everything
She can see

Daylight in my heart
Daylight in the trees
Daylight kisses everything
She can see

Ooh your dream
Here on the water
Warm the sand
The seagulls calling

Kissed by kindness x4

Ooh your dream
Here on the water
Warm the sand
The seagulls calling

Kissed by kindness x4

You gave me this
And your fire becomes a kiss

You gave me this
And your fire becomes a kiss
