

Charismatic SOB

Anuhea

What's the use man, what's the use?
What's the use anyway?

Well I see you, you walking down the street and I say, "hello"
But you're saying "hi" to everyone out there, so
Why should I care?
I'm a minuscule addition to your glorified existence
You're 40 feet tall and I'm less than insignificant
I need my presence felt and what am I to do when
Everyone's feeling me but you?

I've fallen in lust with a charismatic S.O.B.
You've been fueling my flame unintentionally
My fire is burning
But there's no one to stand in the glow
What's the use...

What's the use man, what's the use?
What's the use today?
What's the use man, what's the use?
What's the use anyway, hey hey

How to get you to look at me more than just
Lips, tits and ass and see through to me
Deeper as a part of your past
That resonates in your mind as a time
You should have seen that what you could've had
Was nothing short of amazing
Nothing short of amazing
Nothing short of amazing
Don't think you can play me,
You're the one losing, baby

I've fallen in lust with a charismatic S.O.B.
You've been fueling my flame and you don't even know me
My fire is burning
But there's no one to stand in the glow
What's the use?

Now I've fallen in lust again
Here you come, kissing cheeks, shaking hands
You need to climb off your pedestal 'cause
No offense but your game's not that good

Minuscule addition to your glorified existence
You're 40 feet tall and I'm less than insignificant
I need my presence felt and what am I to do when
Everyone's feeling me but you?

I've fallen in lust with a charismatic S.O.B.
You've been fueling my flame, and I'm drowning in your sea
My fire is burning
But there's no one to stand in the glow
Oh-oh what's the use?

What's the use man, what's the use?
What's the u-u-u-u-u-u-yeah

What's the use man, what's the use?
What's the use anyway, hey, hey
What's the use man, what's the use?
What's the use man, what's the use?
