

Burning Bridges

Anvil

When you bite the hand that feeds
Destructive forces out to get you
When you can't fulfill your needs
You can't achieve what you want to

Burning bridges, a fire attack
Burning bridges, you can't go back

Unnecessary choice
Victim of your own decisions
Listen to your inner voice
Product of your own condition

Burning bridges, a fire attack
Burning bridges, you can't go back
Feeling the pressure bearing down on me
Garbage or treasure, what's it going to be?

Failure or success
Balanced on the dividing line
Sins to confess
Ain't no one's fault but mine

Burning bridges, a fire attack
Burning bridges, you can't go back
Burning bridges, a fire attack
Burning bridges, you can't go back

Seeing the future through distorted eyes
Tainted by anger, stress and lies
Feeling the pressure bearing down on me
Garbage or treasure, what's it going to be?

Burning bridges, a fire attack
Burning bridges, you can't go back

Controlling your actions
All for good or bad
Disposable transactions
For that, you should be glad

Burning bridges, a fire attack
Burning bridges, you can't go back
Burning bridges, a fire attack
Burning bridges, you can't go back
