

Ignorance and maybe more
The selfishness we all deplore
Everything is done for you
Change your diaper when you do
The worlds become your biggest toy
Nothing but a little boy
Throw a tantrum everyday
All I have to say

Ego Ego Ego acting like a child

Entitled person deny what's true
Making people work for you
Insecure to the core
Never enough and you want more
Between your legs you put your tail
Know that you are bound to fail
Lessons you will never learn
Go to hell and burn

Ego Ego Ego running wild
Ego Ego Ego acting like a child

Satisfied you'll never be
Never learned integrity
Manipulation is your game

You're the first to criticize
You should be brought down to size
Dark sunglasses when you're inside
Like a coward you do hide
Take a share when it's not fair
You take my share and then we're square
Send you home you little man
You are nothing but a scam
