Count your pennies and don't spend a dime
Ripping yourself off is a crime
It's a crime
The lust for money, an obsession of life
Cheap son of a bitch, it cuts like a knife
Cuts like a knife
Steal a share
Do and dare
Don't steal from me

Feed, feed the greed
Feed, feed the greed

Another day, another dollar, another scam
Actions speak louder than the man
Than the man
Take you for a ride
Integrity's died
Don't lie to me

Feed, feed the greed
Feed, feed the greed

When you're old you are sure to be alone
King among paupers, sitting on a throne
On a throne
Take your dough
You can go
Straight to hell

Feed, feed the greed
Feed, feed the greed
Feed, feed the greed
Feed, feed the greed
