

Speakeasy

Anya Marina

there is this place underground, a place you should know some crooked folks doing crooked things on the low I wanna go (go!)

so can you keep a secret, can you hold it tight?
you could wrap it up inside a little alibi don't wanna lose you

cross your heart, hope you're mine oh did it ever cross your wicked little mind?
it's gonna take two to get out alive meet me at the speakeasy, speakeasy, speakeasy, speakeasy speak easy with me

there is a place I wanna go, a place so dark the Shanghai Tunnels leading right into your heart

oh did it ever cross your wicked little mind?

meet me at the speakeasy...

it's a nefarious place in a precarious state don't want to lose you in the underground
it's a nefarious place in a precarious state don't want to lose you downtown, make me go around town going up going up going up gonna make it up downtown, I'm going round and round going up, on up, on up, gonna make it out

meet me at the speakeasy...

so let me break break break break it down show me what you're made of, show me what you're putting down don't wanna lose you in the underground

so can you keep a secret, can you hold it tight?
you could wrap it up inside a tiny little lie
