Tell me what the fuck's goin' on y'all We droppin' bombs up in this bitch!
Tell me what's goin' on!
Y'all better recognize
Psychopathic, droppin' bombs!

I will always keep my shit, underneath the surface Because the way I flow, the mainstream don't deserve this I'm set out to break backs on tracks
And scratch on all records that you spin on wax
I'm a crazy motherfucker with pride
And I got enough wisdom to keep my soul alive
So grab a mic and lemme see if it shine
Cause it's time to make this whole world mine, all mine

Everytime I see these people
They always just stop and stare
Like I don't belong in this place
So they say that it's not fair
I can't understand this drama
That the Earth brings down on me
So let me take you through my mind
Look in my eyes, follow me

Tell me, what's going on And drop these bombs on you Tell me, what's going on And drop these bombs on you

I'm gonna tell you why I'm dropping bombs

Because I'm sick and fuckin' tired of seein' fire alarms

Little explosions, marshmallows roastin'

Soft motherfuckers standin' on the stage boastin'

Now don't expect me to just walk away

Because I been told y'all that I'm here to stay

I'ma still keep flowin', from coast to coast

And I'ma still keep smokin' weed with juggalos

I'ma still bust caps, at all these hoes

And I'ma drop me a bomb off at every show

That's how it is, so just grab your bow

Because it's time to represent and watch these warriors grow

I can't understand this drama
That the Earth brings down on me
So let me take you through my mind
Look in my eyes, follow me

Tell me, what's going on And drop these bombs on you Tell me, what's going on And drop these bombs on you
