

Every Single Day

Anything Box

I could watch you cry, if I tried,
Although it would hurt me to
I can hold your hand, and understand
The pain you're going through
I can see in you
You want to be in love again
I can only say
My only words to keep you free of doubting
Every single day,
I'll give you my heart
I'll give you my soul
Every single day,
I'll give you my heart
I'll give you my soul
You were just a girl,
Lost and alone until my eyes found you
I was just a boy,
Who wandered in shelter of the cold
When the sun came up
It smiled on you, it smiled on me
We both realized
It had to be, I made this promise to you
Every single day,
I'll give you my heart
I'll give you my soul
Every single day,
I'll give you my heart
I'll give you my soul
So you see my love,
Don't you suffer
Don't you worry anymore
