

Ash/Black Veil

Apparat

Oh, I swear
I saw her right out there

Caught a glimpse of her grace,
Slightly misplaced.

She's around
Without audible sound

Covers the mood with a gloom,
She's alone in the room

And the walls are melting.

Today time froze
And I will need a cause
To carry on on my own

The walls are melting
The walls are melting
The walls are melting
The walls are melting
