

Deserted hopes, deserted eyes
Deserted soul, deserted lies
Deserted hands of deserted men
Deserted all should I want
Chorus:
Turn the light on
Turn the lights on, let's go!
Desperate hope inside us all!
Deserted laughs suffocates you, the bold ones
Today so young and tomorrow gone!
It's a rematch, furiously happening
The plays we call our home, left alone
Turn the light on
Turn the lights on, let's go!
Desperate hope inside us all!
Turn the light on
Turn the lights on, let's go!
Desperate hope inside us all!
