Josie

Apparatjik

Josie, is this right for your heart?
Ably you shape those moves from your thoughts
Your price and turning, go hand in hand
That's something that no one can understand

And if you want to be friends with me You know I've seen the spot lights And I want to see your amalgamation

Under these lights you're locked in time You know, there's no stage fright And I can't believe how your agile bending mends

Josie, is this right for your heart?
Ably you shape those moves from your thoughts
Your price and turning go hand in hand
That's something that no one can understand

Josie, is this right for your heart?
Ably you shape those moves from your thoughts
Your price and turning go hand in hand
That's something that no one can understand

And if you want to be friends with me You know I've seen the spot lights And I want to see your amalgamation

Under these lights you're locked in time You know there's no stage fright And I can't believe how your agile bending mends

Your price and turning goes hand in hand That's something that no one can understand