

Living A Lie

April Sixth

I never said that you were wrong
But you were right for me, see
If you been playable, I am strong
I think we might have runned free, now listen

You wanna touch me
But you can't, cause you're blind
We're talking about my suicide
You wanna feel for me
And now we're waiting for them to arrive

Come on, you wanna feel for me
Cause I'm living a lie
But I'm happier than you will be

I didn't want it to come to this
But now I see the truth, so
You better hope that I forget
About me and you
Now listen...

You wanna touch me
But you can't, cause you're blind
We're talking about my suicide
You wanna feel for me
And now we're waiting for them to arrive

Come on blind, you wanna feel for me
Cause I'm living a lie
But I'm happier than you will be
Cause I'm trying to find
A life that I've been proud to leave
Cause I'm living a lie
But I'm happier than you will be

Help me find a reason for tonight
A reason why I shouldn't... take my life!

Come on blind, you wanna feel for me
Cause I'm living a lie
But I'm happier than you will be
Cause I'm trying to find
A life that I've been proud to leave
Cause I'm living a lie
But I'm happier than you will be
