

Good Goodnight

Aqualung

You talk in your sleep
I hear you say
Beautiful things
I love you, I do
You know that I do.

The world is awake
But you don't hear
A sound that it makes
Asleep in dreams so deep.

Peace in your heart
Peace in your soul
Peace in your head
Good goodnight.

You're far from me now
But you'd be here
In the blink of an eye
If I spoke your name.

The morning will come
For you and I
Life will go on
But keep at least from now till then...

Peace in your heart
Peace in your soul
Peace in your head
Good goodnight.

Peace in your head
Good, Good, Good, goodnight.

You talk in your sleep.

You talk in your sleep.
