

Rolls So Deep

Aqualung

I'm gonna teach myself to drive
Down the road on the other side.
I'm gonna set myself alive
To put some fire in my soul.

Could've told you a million lies
Given everything to compromise
But you could run for a million miles
And still have nowhere to go.

It's like lightning in a clear blue sky.
There's a storm but you keep it inside
It's like thunder when I look in your eyes
And it rolls...it rolls
It rolls so deep.

You're gonna have to wait awhile.
Tune it in on another dial
Cause every time that you make me smile
Blood bursts out of a stone.

And if I have to be myself again
Drown our tears in the pouring rain
It's the end of the holiday
And you don't wanna go home.

It's like lightning in a clear blue sky.
There's a storm but you keep it inside

It's like thunder when I look in your eyes
And it rolls...it rolls
It rolls so deep. Yeah!
It rolls...it rolls so deep.

I wanna feel it everyday
I wanna feel it everyday everyday
Oohh

It's like thunder when I look in your eyes
And it rolls
It's like lightning in a clear blue sky
There's a storm but you keep it inside
It's like thunder when I look in your eyes
It's like thunder when I look in your eyes
And it rolls so deep, yeah.
It rolls...it rolls so deep, yeah.
It rolls...it rolls so deep.

La la la la la
La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la, yeah.
Yeah
Ooh, ooh, ooh ooh ohh

It's like lightning in a clear blue sky
There's a storm but you keep it inside
It's like thunder when I look in your eyes

It's like thunder when I look in your eyes
It's like thunder when I look in your eyes
