Slip-Sliding Away

Slip-sliding away, slip-sliding away You know the nearer the destination The more you're slip-sliding away

And I know a man, he came from my home town He wore this bad shirt For his woman like a thorny crown He said, "Dolores, I live in fear" "My love for you is so overpowering I'm afraid that I will disappear"

He's slip-sliding away, slip-sliding away You know the nearer the destination The more you're slip-sliding away

And I know a woman, became a wife These are the very words She uses to describe her life She says, "A good day ain't got not rain" She said, "A bad day is when I lie in bed And think of things that might've been"

She's slip-sliding away, slip-sliding away You know the nearer the destination The more you're slip-sliding away You're slip-sliding away, slip-sliding away You know the nearer the destination The more you're slip-sliding away

Mmhmmm

And I know a father who had a son He longed to tell him all the reasons For the things he'd done He came a long way just to explain He kissed his boy as he lay sleeping And he turned around and headed home again

He's slip-sliding, slip-sliding away You know the nearer the destination The more you're slip-sliding away Slip-sliding away, slip-sliding away You know the nearer the destination The more you're slip-sliding away
