

We say it's normal
watching blood from the screen
we say it's normal
murder as a part of our life

On hired killer
no dirt left on your hands
on hired killer
death without scruples about

Maybe that one of you
could be the next jackal Dispatched opponent method of politicsf dispatched opponent sometime's the way we regard Why don't you listen

rulers are killing truth
why don't you listen

it's time to fight for your rights All we know depth of the torment waste
of honour and lake

of the law
What was shown before this moment means
the world stays

always so raw
We say it's normal ...
Dispatched opponent ...
Maybe that one of us
