

Lost In Time

Arcana

One Look from you
I turn my back against the press on my cheek
the presence of my feel
A embrace from you
I see the future so bright and clear
A word of love in my ear
I'm lost in Time

As the wind strokes my hair
A shiver in my skin
your face in front of me
Forever you are my beloved

A smile on your lips
I feel a tear in my eye
Your hand seek mine
I feel your warm embrace
Your arms around me
I close my eyes and hear you
A word of faith in my ear
I'm lost in your soul

As the wind strokes my hair
A shiver in my skin
your face in front of me
Forever you are my beloved

A smile on your lips
I feel a tear in my eye
Your hand seek mine
I feel your warm embrace
Your arms around me
I close my eyes and hear you
A word of faith in my ear
I am lost in your soul

As the wind strokes my hair
A shiver in my skin
your face in front of me
Forever you are my beloved

Forever you are my beloved
