

Bats and Rats and Murderers

Architecture in Helsinki

By yourself
By the road
there's a message in a bottle from the phone we left got drunk alone

and baby can we climb up up a rock face by a waterfall on a holiday that felt no hot damn night in a blackend hole where there's gnats and rats and murderers and next-door neighbors you for kick and fight.
