

Neatly Folded

Archive

She folded neatly in my arms
I, I had everything
All that she wanted
Was to love me
Like no one else
But I repeated myself all over again
Why can't I just love
Why can't I just love

Love without hurting someone and causing pain
She only ever wanted to know me
But I'm too selfish for that
I made her doubt herself
But I repeated myself all over again
Why can't I just love
Why can't I just love
