From childhood's hour I have not been As others were - I have not seen As others saw - I could not bring My passions from a common spring. From the same source I have not taken My sorrow; I could not awaken My heart to joy at the same tone; And all I lov'd, I lov'd alone. Then - in my childhood - in the dawn Of a most stormy life - was drawn From ev`ry depth of good and ill The mystery which binds me still: From the torrent, or the fountain, From the red cliff of the mountain, From the sun that `round me roll`d In it`s autumn tint of gold -From the lightning in the sky As it pass'd me flying by -From the thunder and the storm, And the cloud that took the form (When the rest of Heavens was blue) Of a demon in my view.
