

Bed of Nails

Arena

Throw me on that bed of nails
Every spike another tale of - Thoughtless voices
All the roads they lead to here
What I made of all the years - Reckless choices

This is my show - It 's all that I know
The sum of my actions - A life as it flows
Don't read my mind - you'd hate what you find
Those short cut solutions • the trail of the cruel and the kind

See those nails
Every spike another tale of - Wrong intentions
All mistakes were mine to make
No one else is here to blame - self-deceptions

This is my show - it's all that i know
The sum of my actions - A life as it flows
Don't read my mind - you d hate what you find
Those short cut solutions - the trail of the cruel and the kind

Grieve for me... but don't try to bring me back now
Weep for me... but don't try to bring me back
Remember me... And i can live on forever
Remember me... And I can leave on in you

Baggage that I throw away
Clean the slate and start again - Now is my finest illusion
How will they remember me?
Was I everything I seemed - witness my finest illusion
Throw me on that bed of nails - Every spike another tale
Throw me on that bed of nails - Every spike another tale

Grieve for me... but don't try to bring me back now
Weep for me... but don't try to bring me back
Remember me... And i can live on forever
Remember me... And I can leave on in you

This is my show - it 's all that i know
The sum of my actions - A life as it flows
