

I Won't Cry Anymore

Aretha Franklin

I won't cry anymore, now that you've left me
I won't cry anymore, now that you've gone
I've shed a million tears since we've been apart
And now that it's got aches, but tears can never mend no broken hearts

I won't sigh anymore, oh, I'll just forget you
I'm closing the door of memories
And although you're the one love my heart is longing for
This is goodbye, you can't make me cry anymore
