

It Only Happens (When I Look at You)

Aretha Franklin

It happens every time I look into your eyes
I can normal see in your heart
How can I explain when time and time again it starts

It only happens
When I look at you, oh baby
Oh, it only happens, yeah, yeah
When I look at you, oooh

I wonder if you know things I'm going through Can't you see my love depends on you?
Believe me when I say it gets stronger everyday
Oh, heart is true

Oh, oh, it only happens, oh baby
When I look at you, you're looking good to me baby
It only happens, oooh
When I look at you, yeah

Play it pretty now
What you feel

Oh, oh, it only happens, uh baby, oh baby
When I look at you, uh we baby, uh we baby
It only happens, auh
When I look at you, yeah

Well, I guess you know the way that I feel about you now
I wonder if you feel the same way too
Oh baby, no, no matter what you say, let me get to you someday
Oh, heart is true

Oh, oh, it only happens, oooh
When I look at you, oh baby, oh oh baby
It only happens, oooh
When I look at you, uh we baby
It only happens, oh baby
When I look at you, when I flip out you, when I'm longer next you, uh baby it's true
It only happens, oooh
When I look at you, what a amaze, don't you feel so doggone mean, I m ean
It happens, ooh, everytime I look at you, yeah baby, oh baby, uh baby
It happens, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, oooh
It only happens, Lord have mercy now
When I look at you, yeah, would you lay on me baby?
It only happens, oh baby, oh baby
When I look at you, when I flip out you, when I'm longer next you, do n't you know it's true?
It only happens, every, every, every, everytime I look at you, oh bab y, oh oh baby
It only happens
