Never Gonna Break My Faith

Aretha Franklin

My Lord I have read this book so many times But nowhere can I find the page That change what I experience today

Now I know that life is meant to be hard That's how I learn to appreciate my God Though my courage made me try I can tell you I won't hide Because the footprints show you are by my side

You can lie to a child with a smilin' face Tell me that color ain't about race You can cast the first stones, you can break my bones But you're never gonna break You're never gonna break my faith

Faith and hope ain't yours to give Truth and liberty are mine to live You can steal a crown from a king Break an angels wings But you're never gonna break You're never gonna break my faith

My Lord Won't you help them to understand That when someone takes the life of an innocent man Well, they never really won because all they've really done Is set the soul free where it's supposed to be?

For those we lose before their time I pray their souls will find the light I know that the day will surely come When His will, His will, will be done
