

Bring You Joy

Argent

You made me feel like I never could feel
To the depths of my soul
Now for the first time, I'm living for real
And I feel I'm made whole
And I will sacrifice to bring you joy
Yes, I will spend my life to bring you joy.

Bring you joy, like you've never known before
Bring you joy, make you scream and shout for more
Take this boy and from misery you'll soar
Into joy that you'll feel for evermore.

And I'll make you feel so happy you could cry
Yes I'll make you feel so happy you will die.

Sing and shout, throw your feelings to the skies
Sing and shout, let the joy within you rise
Shout it out, that you want to laugh and cry
Want to shout, want to spread your wings and fly.

And I'll make you feel so happy you could cry
And I'll make you feel so happy you will die.

You made me feel like I never could feel
To the depths of my soul.

Now for the first time, I'm living for real
And I feel I'm made whole.

And I will sacrifice to bring you joy
Yes, I will spend my life to bring you joy.
