

Like Honey

Argent

Like honey, you're sweeter
Like fine silk, you're pleasure
When night falls on rare wine
Like honey, you're sweeter

Like fire, you're burning
Like white fury burning
When night falls on stone rooms
Like fire, you're burning

I'll love you forever
'Till seas lose their freedom
And night falls no longer
I'll love you forever

So rise, so rise and learn to fly
Help the lonely hour of the night pass by
So rise, and spread your wings
Help the lonely hour of the night begin
So fly...
So fly...

Like honey, you're sweeter
Like fine silk, you're pleasure
When night falls on rare wine
Like honey, you're sweeter

I'll love you forever
'Till seas lose their freedom
And night falls no longer
I'll love you forever
