

Stand Strong

Argy Bargy

You look down on us like we're scum of the earth, but we don't care

If opinions count, what's yours worth? Well I don't care

It's not some fashion or a passing phase,

Or some fake made up catwalk craze

I don't give a shit what you think of me

Coz I'm gonna be what I wanna be

We will always stand strong

Coz this is where we belong

We will always stand strong

Stand your ground and you won't go wrong

You said it wouldn't last but we proved you wrong, but we don't care

The Great Rock n Roll Swindle still goes on, but I don't care

We'll stick together like we've always done,

You try to crucify us but we'll never run

I couldn't give a fuck if you don't approve

Your mind's made up so either way we lose
