

Cranberry Lake

Ari Hest

Build me a sky
Build me a scape
Build me a rice house
On Cranberry lake
Float on our backs
Drawing figure eights
And drift for miles
On Cranberry lake

I've been dreaming out loud
But there's no turning back
Turning back now, no

So build me a sunset
With your set of paints
Behind our rice house
On Cranberry lake

Tell me a story
With a surprise at the end
Build the suspense and then
Kiss me instead
Our bed is patient
As we lie awake
Watching the lights over
Cranberry Lake

I've been hoping out loud
I can't take it
Take it back now, no

So build me a sunrise
With your set of paints
In front of our rice house
On cranberry Lake

Ooh
I've been dreaming out loud
There's no turning
Turning back now, no
So build me a sky
Build me a scape
Build me a rice house on
Cranberry Lake
Build me a rice house on
Cranberry Lake
