My Everything

Ariana Grande

I cried enough tears to see my own reflection in them And then it was clear I can't deny, I really miss him To think that I was wrong I guess you don't know what you got til it's gone Pain is just a consequence of love I'm saying sorry for the sake of us

He wasn't my everything til we were nothing And it's taking me a lot to say But now that he's gone, my heart is missing something So it's time I push my pride away

Cause you are, you are You are my everything You are, you are You are my everything

I know you're not far but I still can't handle all the distance You're travelling with my heart I hope this is a temporary feeling Cause it's too much to bare Without you and I know sorry ain't the cure So if I cross your mind just know I'm yours What we got is worth fighting for Cause you are

You weren't my everything til we were nothing And it's taking me a lot to say But now that you're gone, my heart is missing something So it's time I push my pride away

Cause you are, you are You are my everything You are, you are You are my everything
