

I Wonder How Come

Arid

I wonder how come
We never closed the deal
I wonder how come
You left me here to feel
I wonder how come
The birds no longer sing
In their praise of your perfect
Offering
And why you're just a day away
From me
And I am here
Oh why
And why you're just a day away
From me
And I am here
Oh why

And she broke my fall
I wonder how come
Your lips are ruby red
And your heart's always been set
Like that

I wonder how come
I see it in your eyes
And it comes to me as no surprise

And why you're just a day away
From me
And I am here
Oh why

And she broke my fall
