

Why Do You Run

Arid

Why do you run
From me
My life has become
Lonely
Cold water trails
Surround me
When all that I've feared
Has found me

Maybe I'll never know
Maybe I just can't see
Maybe all I want was right
In front of me

Feel my time is running out
Baby I want you to know
One day I will get it right
Till then I hold my own

Why do you run
From me
My life has become
Lonely

Maybe I'll never know
Maybe I just can't see
I just can't afford
This happening
To me

Feel my time is running out
Baby I want you to know
One day I will get it right
Till then I hold my own
Feel this time it's coming down
Baby I want you to know
One day I will get it right
Till then I hold my own

One last time we Go
Away we go

Feel my time is running out
Baby I want you to know
One day I will get it right
Till then I hold my own
Feel this time it's coming down
Baby I want you to know
One day I will get it right
Till then I hold my own

Why do you run
From me
My life has become
Lonely
