Why do you run
From me
My life has become
Lonely
Cold water trails
Surround me
When all that I've feared
Has found me

Maybe I'll never know
Maybe I just can't see
Maybe all I want was right
In front of me

Feel my time is running out Baby I want you to know One day I will get it right Till then I hold my own

Why do you run
From me
My life has become
Lonely

Maybe I'll never know
Maybe I just can't see
I just can't afford
This happening
To me

Feel my time is running out
Baby I want you to know
One day I will get it right
Till then I hold my own
Feel this time it's coming down
Baby I want you to know
One day I will get it right
Till then I hold my own

One last time we Go Away we go

Feel my time is running out
Baby I want you to know
One day I will get it right
Till then I hold my own
Feel this time it's coming down
Baby I want you to know
One day I will get it right
Till then I hold my own
