

Ghosts

Ariel Pink

Go away, ghosts,
Go far away
I don't want you in my dreams anymore

Helen, please don't cry to mother
Because I'll die, no

Please go away,
Don't you run down the hall
Please don't you run,
Go away down the hall

Please go away, down the hall,
Don't you go
Down the hall

No, not one room is yours to play in
Without sound
Your soul is bound

By clanging chains [x3]

Ghosts [x3]

One minute you're a host
Standing there
And then bang, you're a ghost
Ghost

One minute you're the host
Standing there
And then bang,
(Ghost)
It's just a ghost
You're just a gho-

Go away with your very own time and place
Let the ground in the earth forget your name

No, Helen, please don't cry
Go and die

Please go away,
Don't you run down the hall [x2]
Please don't you run,
Please go down the hall

No, not one room is yours to play in
Without sound
Your soul is bound

By clanging chains [x3]

Ghosts [x3]

One minute you're a host
Standing there

And then bang, you're a ghost
(Ghost)

One second you're standing there
Like a host then it's bang,
(Just a)
You're just a ghost

Just a ghost
Ghost
