

Come To Light

Arkells

For a second there I felt peace and calm the underpass would keep us from harm and the wipers moved like some waving arms
We were flashing headlights at coming cars

But up in the distance, even in the dead of night
if we could make it to the morning, we can get things right
It's been a tough go lately, I hate choosing sides
What we do in the darkness, will come to light

In times of fear, you shelter me and you hold me close, so tenderly Now with my headphones on, as I fall asleep you're my barricade from intruding dreams

But up in the distance, even in the dead of night
if we could make it to the morning, we can get things right
It's been a tough go lately, I hate choosing sides
What we do in the darkness, will come to light

Silence fell, when I picked up Those words hit me hard, like a one two punch
So I went home to face the storm and the thought of you keeps me warm

But up in the distance, even in the dead of night
if we could make it to the morning, we can get things right
It's been a tough go lately, I hate choosing sides
What we do in the darkness comes to light When everything went wrong, you're keeping my head on And in time, the things that hurt today will begin to fade away