

Private School

Arkells

Private school girls, private school boys:
Playing games, expensive toys
Private school girls, private school boys:
Don DeLillo wrote White Noise
I tried so hard to find an in but you weren't giving me anything
Come on now throw me a line...it's a sign

Ah, fuck off: don't say I'd do the same
Getting off without an ounce of shame
And you know, I just want to love you...but it's so hard
Just want to love you...but it's so hard

Private school boys, private school girls:
The nicest skin, the nicest curls
Private boys boys, private school girls:
Gimme a chance, gimme a whirl
You walked in, my jaw hit the floor
You act like this is such a chore
Around you I feel like swine:
You're divine

I want to go to the party!
I want to drink the bacardi!
Who's bringing the molly?
Let's get a bit naughty...

I want to go to the party!
I want to drink the bacardi!
Who's bringing the molly?
Who's gonna stop me...

Private school kids, life is so simple
Born on third base, thought they hit a triple
