

Hands To Heaven

Armin van Buuren

Had to look up when I saw you,
Almost instant struck by lightning
Staring at the back of the stars
It's like looking in the mirror
Just before the dawn it's the darkest
So, is this what you're on end you're honest
Everything is in on the outside,
Clap as the sun goes down
Clap as the sun goes down.

When the world stops spinnin' round
And gravity brings you down,
Don't give in
When the weight's too much to bare
And nobody seems to care,
Don't give in,

Throw your hands to Heaven!

Look at what we started
Everything comes from something
Love from pain, hope from hate
And life from the rain
I'm not waving, I'm drowning
And the elements won't give in
Don't give in
Throw your hands to Heaven!
Heaven!
