

Unforgivable

Armin van Buuren

You used to light up the dark
With your unrelenting spark
It always put a fire in me

You used to say I'm the one
The only ray of sun you could touch
Without a fear of burning

Well you used to try to please me
Yeah you used to try to please me
Never said this would be easy [2x]

What are you telling her now
While you hold her in your arms
Are you pretending she's me?

And just how long will you go on
Before you realize you know she's
The one but you're gonna lose her anyway?

You just got there now you're leaving [2x]
Your sweet nothings are deceiving [2x]

Well it ain't over till it's over
And my world shuts down
But this comes close, I'll have you know
It's just a matter of time

But it ain't over till it's over
But I won't be made a fool
Cuz leaving me the way you did was just so
Unforgivable [8x]
