Who Is Watching

Armin van Buuren

Is it stinging the acid in your stream Hear the ringing voices in between

You picked this tune to play And you had to have your way Got your masterpiece But you don't seem pleased

So here it is
Custom made
You wrapped the world
Around your finger
Did you take on
An endless tower
Has your spring
Turned into winter
You're frozen cold
A one man show
But who is watching?
There's no one watching...

Now you got it everything you asked burned your bridges so why you turning back

My doors won't fit you through Your head's too heavy to What could I give you now I'm still the same tale

So here it is
Custom made
You wrapped the world
Around your finger
Was it all
A big mistake
Has your spring
Turned into winter
Your in control
A one man show
But who is watching?
There's no one watching...

So here it is
Custom made
You wrapped the world
Around your finger
You're claim to fame
Turned out a shame
Has your spring
Turnes into winter
You held your own
One man show
But no one's watching...

No, no one's watching...

You can't go back
And you can't come back
