

Warzone

Armored Saint

When I dream I see movies in my head I always have the starring role but the scenery is never quite clear cause the film is growing old but I just roll them dice and I pray for snake eyes lonely

One that I defend lonely warzone my only friend insanity is the word I plead cause the trenches are all filled up with the bodies of men who used to laugh with me they just got shot like sitting

But I just roll them dice and I pray for snake eyes lonely warzone that I defend lonely warzone my only friend it's a bloody fighting how I feel it it's a bloody fighting won't you yield it but

Just roll them dice I keep on rollin lonely warzone that I defend lonely warzone my only friend lonely warzone that I defend lonely warzone my only friend
