

Golden Pony

Army Navy

I'm tryin' to stay clever
'Cause the jokes are all I have To keep my back from bending and splitting me in half

You can pack my spine in luggage
Hide it in the earth
I tried to make it stronger
But that's the part that hurts

In the shape of an arch
And the burden of hearts
I cannot be honest

Oh-oh-oh
You should keep your distance
I can be insistent, I
Oh-oh-oh, Typical

I'm not sure
I'll be resisting
You are more resilient
I-I-I am awful

I'm drawing illustrations
And painting in the eyes
I wish I had the suasion
To draw you to my life

When you sleep in the spine
You sleep on a land mine
The pill will come to find you

Oh-oh
you should keep your distance
I can be insistent,
I-I-I typical

I'm not sure
I'll be resisting
you are non-existent
I-I-I am awful

Sleep on a land mine
You'll keep your distance, I'll be resistant
You should keep your distance
You'll be resilient
I'm non-existent

Sleep on a land mine
Sleep on a land mine
Sleep on a land mine
Hey hey hey
Sleep on a land mine
Hey hey hey hey
