

Open Season

Arrayan Path

Now, we roam the streets, to fight the crime
Oh but I know it's not criminals you find
Your ego trips, won't let you find
The inner peace that lies before your eyes

Eyes that read your lies
Abuse the power

Oh it's open season
Oh another reason

You, corrupted fools, you're in disguise
Oh but I know you have no ears no eyes
This decadence, you crave to find,
In society like cancer you grow

Eyes that read your lies
Abuse the power

Oh it's open season
The only reason

You're disguisin' you corrupted fools,
You're disguisin' you're corrupted,
You've got the right to be silent

Oh it's open season
Oh another reason
Oh it's open season
The only reason
