

Osiris

Arrayan Path

Mystic night the night is burning
Tortured sinners a radical burning
Wait for the sun as you rise because
Your blood will lead us to war!

Oh God of all, we hail thy sword
Govern our soul and give us hope

And the light will shine again (Yes I am that warrior)
Feel the mortals call your name (Over the land of Egyptian soil)
And the light will shine again (and I feel and I feel it)
For he who commands the rain

I'M WAITING FOR OSIRIS
TO TAKE AWAY THE PAIN
I'M WAITING FOR OSIRIS
TO SHARE OUR MORTAL PAIN
I'M WAITING FOR OSIRIS
TO COME HOME
I'M WAITING FOR THE ONE
WHO CLAIMS THE THRONE

Temple of war unites us all
Mendita God, thy sword you hold

And the light will shine again (Yes I am that warrior)
Feel the mortals call your name (Over the land of Egyptian soil)
And the light will shine again (and I feel and I feel it)
For he who commands the rain

Brother of Seth, grant us eternal glory
Blood spilled, torn into pieces and mend back again
You came back to our life
Eternally to live and die
King of the dead, blood of winter
Below the eart, below the earth
Your blood will lead us to war

And the light will shine again (Yes I am that warrior)

Feel the mortals call your name (Over the land of Egyptian soil)
And the light will shine again (and I feel and I feel it)
For he who commands the rain

You know you're our night and day
All I wanna do is hail you...
