

The Blood Remains on the Believer

Arrayan Path

Tell me why do we still sin?
If we are to be saved
Maybe we are meant to be
To break god's rules
And I know
You cast a shadow on my fears
Still my soul is split in two

Leave me be
Oh let me live
No

Lies of good and evil
Shame and endless fever
Again

The twisted lies of the deceiver
Dark master and healer
Soul collector dealer
In me
The blood remains of the believer

Am I one of the unsaved?
Christ save me
Am I meant to break your rules
Lucifer take me
And I know
I feel corruption in my heart
No. No. Not again

Leave me be
Oh let be live

And from all the years of hunger for souls
I can see now we're alone in this world
Even if there's good and evil
Every man will have to chase his own goals

Lies of good and evil
Shame and endless fever
Again
The twisted lies of the deceiver
Dark master and healer
Soul collector dealer
In me
The blood remains of the believer

And from all the years of hunger for souls
I can see now we're alone in this world
Every man will have to chase his own goals
