

What you gonna say?
Not the person that you believed-
And who's it gonna hurt?
After all, it's only you and me.

You're always so careful to never let it show,
'Cause you're so afraid that you'll find yourself alone
With a bag and a gun, a thought in love.

But it's time to open up the closet,
To open up our eyes.
Let our own love delight-
So you can be the witness, and I'll commit the crime-
Yeah I'll commit the crime.

Look at this life-
Is the mirror what you want to see?
Are you scared of what we'll find-
Or is it everything you want it to be?

'Cause it's time to open up the closet,
To open up our eyes.
Let our own love delight-
So you can be the witness, and I'll commit the crime-
I'll commit the crime.

Yeah, yeah...

Always so careful to never let it show-
You're so afraid that you'll find yourself alone
With a bag and a gun, a thought in love.

But it's time to open up the closet,
To open up our eyes.
Let our own love delight-
So you can be the witness, and I'll commit the crime.
But it's time-
So you can be the witness, and I'll commit the crime-
Yeah I'll commit the crime.
