

Minimum

Arsenium

She's the one, she's the one
She's the one, the only one
She's the one, she's the one
She's the one, my only one

Love is a game for two
I thought I would play it with you
But now I play alone
In a game that you don't belong to

And I pray for the minimum
Yes, I pray for the minimum
Should I pray for the minimum now

Refren
When it's hard to believe I pray
For minimum of love I will find a way
Minimum of love I'll say goodbye
Leaving it all behind

I swear I will change for you
I'll do anything you ask me to
Don't you go away
Cause I'll never find someone like you

And I pray for the minimum
Yes, I pray for the minimum
Should I pray for the minimum now

Refren
When it's hard to believe I pray
For minimum of love I will find a way
Minimum of love I'll say goodbye
Leaving it all behind

Love you every second
Love you every day and all my life
Waitinf for the time, when you'll be mine

Every time I close my eyes
I feel lost in your arm
You're the one, my only one

Refren
When it's hard to believe I pray
For minimum of love I will find a way
Minimum of love I'll say goodbye
Leaving it all behind

She's the one, she's the one
She's the one, the only one
She's the one, she's the one
She's the one, my only one
