

Red Meat & Big Trucks

Arsonists Get All The Girls

Pestilence will only lead you in a big pile of your most stunning action as he did seek the truth until it is all uncovered slam the book so the courtyard sings our fate in time it will just ring let me set the stage for you all this is nothing new to say or hear they have always been there its just a matter of acknowledgment they claimed free the slaves when all they did was work them all to death loomed in the air instead of different potency today i say crying to me in fact or fiction? but only waiting for my decision well it is it is it is fiction for christs sake fiction on your part fact in life as for now as for now give them bakt to him or the flies lord shall have his vengeance weigh down charisma for these bodies they burn now have red meat
