

Bad Weekend

Art Brut

Haven't read the NME in so long, don't know what genre we belong x 2

Popular culture, no longer applies to me (4x)

It's tough at the top, the fashionista, text in topshop, text in topshop

Sometimes it's hard to stop, when your heart is set on top of the pops, top of the pops

It's tough at the top, the fashionista, text in topshop, text in topshop

Sometimes it's hard to stop, when your heart is set on top of the pops, top of the pops

I've saved up so much money to spend, all I can afford is a bad weekend

And there's no reason for staying in, there's nothing on the television

Popular culture, no longer applies to me (4x)
