

Shine It on Me

Art Garfunkel

You're still the best person I ever knew
There were a thousand little things that I was always just about to say to you
But now the time it grows shorter for the speeches;
Let me leave you with a line-

Might help you pass the time... sometime.
You might as well smile
Ain't no tears gonna drown the rain
Keeps on falling
You might as well smile
Ain't no pain gonna change what still remains
You might as well maintain, babe, Protect your sanity, your sanity, and Shine it on, babe. Shine It On Me.

I remember times when you'd touch me
And you'd, you'd freeze my spine.
We were looking in the mirror at the time
I got confused and thought your eyes were mine

Might help you pass the time... sometime.
You might as well smile
Ain't no tears gonna drown the rain
Keeps on falling
You might as well smile
Ain't no pain gonna change what
still remains
You might as well regain, babe
Your lost serenity, serenity, and Shine it on, babe. Shine It On Me.
