

Breathe Again

Art of Dying

When I hesitate I know it's just too late to bring you back, but still I need you
I can't communicate the burden of this weight
My world is black until I see you

I don't know how, I don't know when, but I can finally breathe again
Life's too short, the day's too long
In the end I knew it all along
I knew it all along

Two sides of a knife, story of my life, the pain is sharp a comfort bleeds through
I can't seem to clear my head, I wish that I was dead
Falling apart cause I still need you

I don't know how, I don't know when, but I can finally breathe again
Life's too short, the day's too long
In the end I knew it all along
Like a newborn child, like a raven in the wind
I can finally breathe again
I can finally breathe again

When I hesitate I know it's just too late to bring you back, but still I need you

I don't know how, I don't know when, but I can finally breathe again
Life's too short, the day's too long
In the end I knew it all along
Like a newborn child, like a raven in the wind
I can finally breathe again

I don't know how, I don't know when, but I can finally breathe again
Life's too short, the day's too long
In the end I knew it all along
Like a newborn child, like a raven in the wind
I can finally breathe again, yeah
I can finally breathe again, yeah
I can finally breathe again

I don't know how, I don't know when, but I can finally breathe again
Life's too short, the day's too long
In the end I knew it all along
I can finally breathe again

I knew it all along
I can finally breathe again
