

Car Crash

Art of Dying

I didn't say 'I love you',
When I had the chance,
And now I lie here bleeding,
I'm in an awful mess.

I know it's not the right time,
To become a religious man,
But I've got that nasty feeling,
It's my only chance.

There is no pain, no sign of life,
I took in vain my only life,
I can't explain where the time went,
Now I'm breathing my final breath.

I fell awake while sleeping,
Forgot to remember how,
I gave my best at taking,
Had everything but more.

The pavement's getting cold now,
You're the best thing in my life,
I really should have told you,
But I didn't have the time.

There is no pain, no sign of life,
I took in vain my only life,
I can't explain where the time went,
Now I'm breathing my final breath.

There is no pain, no sign of life,
I took in vain my only life,
I can't explain where the time went,
Now I'm breathing my final breath.

Now I'm breathing, my final...
There goes... my last breath.
There goes... my last breath.
There goes... my last breath.
There goes... my last breath.
There goes... my last breath.
There goes...
